

ACE Mentor Program Holds College Fair in Frederick, Maryland

Frederick, MD, Oct. 29, 2007—The Frederick Affiliate of the ACE (Architecture, Construction, and Engineering) Mentor Program held its college fair for the 2007-2008 academic year on October 22, 2007. About 60 students and parents attended along with ACE mentors.

Colleges from the Mid-Atlantic area that participated in the event include the University of Maryland, Frederick Community College, Penn State, Rutgers State University, Virginia Tech, and West Virginia University. The Career and Technology Center (CTC; where education to high school students who want to enhance their academic studies with specialized training in competitive fields located in Frederick) was also present.

Representatives from each college gave a brief description of their school and the programs that involve Architecture, Construction, and Engineering. Students and parents then spoke one-on-one with the college representatives.
