

2010 SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS BREAKFAST

Wednesday, April 21st, 2010 from 8-10am
Historic Lobby – Ronald Reagan National Airport

“The ACE program gave me so many opportunities that I would have never thought I would experience. I believe that because of the ACE program I am now a more professional person, leader, and role model to my friends and family.”

Christian Chance, 2009 Scholarship Awardee

FAQS

What is the Scholarship Awards Breakfast?

Our annual Scholarship Awards Breakfast recognizes high school students with outstanding academic achievement; as well as encourages the advancement of higher education in the built environment. The scholarships awarded reward those students possessing academic dedication and the drive to succeed in the Architecture/Engineering/Construction industry with scholarships to continue on in their studies at a two or four year college.

The event also spotlights corporations, foundations and individuals who have made significant contributions to ACE DC through sponsorship of the awards breakfast. Attendees can expect a phenomenal Keynote Speaker and a silent auction.

What is the dress code?

The dress code is business attire.

What is the Order of Ceremonies?

The event features a hot-and-cold plate buffet breakfast, Silent Auction, Keynote Speaker and awards ceremony.

Who attends?

The breakfast draws roughly three hundred guests from A/E/C industry corporations and businesses. ACE supporters, local-area educators, scholarship awardees and parents will also be in attendance.

May I just give a donation?
