

Murray Savage
ACE Treasurer
CEO, Professional Service Industries

Murray Savage is Chief Executive Officer of Professional Service Industries, Inc. (PSI), a position he assumed in October 1999. Mr. Savage joined PSI in 1974, was named Assistant Controller in 1977, Treasurer in 1979, Chief Financial Officer in 1990 and President in 1998.

Mr. Savage received his Master of Business Administration at the Institute of Technology in 1979, and his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and Business from Augustana College in 1973. He is an active member of several industry associations, including ASFE, ACIL and the Construction Industry Group Roundtable.

As Chief Executive Officer of PSI, Mr. Savage is responsible for directing the implementation of company objectives, plans, policies and, ultimately, the overall performance of the company. His previous responsibilities as President and Chief Financial Officer included interpreting corporate policy, managing company property, establishing and maintaining banking relationships, financial reporting, personnel and purchasing.

Mr. Savage was previously a member of the corporate budget staff for the Commonwealth Edison Company, and was responsible for accumulating data for rate adjustment cases, accounting records and administration.

PSI is a leading independent engineering testing firm and one of the largest consulting engineering firms in the U.S., with more than $200 million in annual revenues. PSI provides a wide range of environmental and engineering services, including environmental consulting, geotechnical engineering, construction materials testing and engineering, industrial hygiene, and roofing and facilities consulting. PSI, headquartered in Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois, a Chicago suburb, Murray R. Savage operates from 150 offices in 35 states, with approximately 3,000 employees.