

Success Stories

Nubia Castano: graduated from Bryany HS in Queens, participated in ACE for two years, ACE scholarship winner and attended New York City Technical College; has worked with Mancini-Duffy and is now with Hudson Meridian in NYC.

Michael Chen: graduate of Stuyvesant HS, in ACE for two years, bachelors and masters degrees in Civil Engineering from MIT, employed full-time with Thornton Tomasetti in Newark, and mentors with ACE Newark chapter

Beatriz Kim: participated in the ACE NYC program for two years, ACE scholarship winner, graduated from Binghamton University and now works with Flack + Kurtz in NYC

Winston Peters: graduate of Canarsie HS in Brooklyn, in ACE for two years, recipient of ACE scholarship, graduate of Manhattan College (Civil Engineering), has worked with Turner Construction and now works for Malcolm Pirnie in Westchester County; mentors in the NYC program

Winston Warner: an early participant with ACE, two year participant, graduated from the University of Michigan and now works with Hudson Meridian.

Sophonia Welch: graduate of Tilden HS, in ACE for two years, recipient of ACE scholarship, graduated from Cornell School of Architecture (5 year degree), has worked with Turner Construction and now works for Ernst & Young in its Real Estate Advisory Department.

William Wong: two year participant with ACE, graduated from RPI and now works with Mancini-Duffy in NYC.