MAYOR'S INTERNSHIP PROGRAM HITS RECORD PARTICIPATION

Mayors Internship Program hits record participation

Mayorconstruction program has seen a surge in participation.

In the past five years, the program has seen an increase of 30% in the number of participants. This year, over 500 students have applied for the program, making it one of the largest youth workforce development programs in the city.

The program provides hands-on experience in various industries, including construction, engineering, and architecture. Participants work alongside professional engineers and architects, gaining valuable skills and knowledge.

Mayor says, "We are committed to providing our youth with the tools they need to succeed in the workforce. The internship program is a great opportunity for them to gain real-world experience and explore potential career paths."
